

Edtech for Cyberbullying

How can managed IT help cyberbullying?

Through digital transformation initiatives, managed IT services can develop custom software solutions that harness the power of AI.

This proactively detects and addresses instances of cyberbullying, ensuring enhanced online safety in an evolving digital landscape.

70%

Of young people who have witnessed cyberbullying.

12.5 Million

Estimated amount of students who will be a victim of cyberbullying.

Many cases of cyberbullying go unreported. Victims might feel embarrassed, fear retaliation, or believe that adults won't understand or know how to help.

